

PASADENA CITY COLLEGE
WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2007-2008

MELIA BASAVAND

..... # 10

FRESHMAN BIO

- A 3-point specialist at shooting guard, she was among the top 10 in 3-point baskets made her sophomore, junior and senior seasons at Glendale High
- Named MVP of her team all three varsity years as an All-Pacific League First Team selection
- Led the team in scoring with a 13.3 points average as a senior
- Helped team earn a wild-card into the CIF playoffs
- Earlier this year, participated on an American-based team at the Pan-Armenian Games held in Yerevan, Armenia

Height
5'7

Year
Freshman

Position
Guard

High School
Glendale

Birthdate
May 18, 1989

Desired Major
Undecided

Parents
Simon and Helisik Basavand

Favorite Pro Player
Linsdsey Harding
(Minnesota Lynx, WNBA)

2007-2008 Update

- In her very first collegiate game, she sank five 3-pointers in a win over Taft; hit five more long-range baskets the next night as part of her 17 points along with five rebounds and four assists in a victory over Moorpark
- Scored a team-high 19 points in a stirring comeback 56-54 win over El Camino; tallied 14 points in helping PCC earn a finals win over San Bernardino Valley at the December Rose City Classic

