CHERISA SELLERS

..... #42

FRESHMAN BIO

- Cherisa comes back to play basketball as a key reserve center for the Lancers
- She took a few years off following playing three years in the post for Joliet Township High in Joliet, Illinois
- At Joliet, she averaged 12 points and 10 rebounds a game in her senior season
- She is PCC's tallest player as the only 6-foot-and above student-athlete
- In Joliet, she coached 14-to-16 year olds in a teen basketball league through the Harvey Brooks Foundation, a community outreach program
- An avid reader and a 3.5 GPA honors student in high school, Cherisa enjoys reading encyclopedias among her preferences
- Aspires to become a basketball referee
- 2008-2009 Update: One of the team's most pleasant surprises in the early going of the season, Cherisa is averaging 6.1 points, 7.1 rebounds, 1.6 steals and 1 block per game. She scored 8 points and grabbed 14 rebounds in the championship clinching game of the Desert Tournament v. Riverside. She totaled 6 points, 10 rebounds, and 5 steals in a win at San Diego Mesa.
