CENTERS FOR REHABILITATION

SPEECH LANGUAGE THERAPY ASSISTANTS

Good Money – Great Opportunity

Casa Colina Centers for Rehabilitative Medicine, a nationally known provider of medical rehabilitation located in Pomona, is seeking Speech Language Therapy Assistants for our Children's Services Center and our renowned Transitional Living Center, an acquired brain injury community re-entry program.

Must have the knowledge and understanding of a variety of cognitive and communication disorders affecting children and adults and the ability to follow treatment plans as developed by the SLP. Serves as an active member of the rehabilitation team in providing appropriate recommendations and referrals to meet the patients' individual needs. Must have valid California SLPA license. Bilingual English/Spanish and experience in Autism Spectrum Disorders preferred. This position is full-time with benefits. Salary is $17.00-$21.00 per hour, depending on experience.

Casa Colina has a rich history of providing physical medicine and rehabilitation for children and adults. Casa Colina offers a highly competitive salary and benefits package and the opportunity for health care professionals to make a difference in their patients' lives. Enjoy personal and professional satisfaction as we prepare to expand our campus and build a new hospital to better serve our patients.
