THE 2008-2009 SPECIAL RECOGNITION AWARDS

Each spring, the Pasadena City College Special Recognition Committee carries out the important work of determining the recipients of the annual Campus Special Recognition and Community Special Recognition Honors. The committee's membership includes students, faculty, staff, administration, and Foundation representatives. The Special Recognition Honors are bestowed on individuals and organizations in recognition of extraordinary and exemplary service rendered to the college.

This year, the 2009 Community Special Recognition Award goes to Mr. Bill Bogaard, the mayor of the City of Pasadena. The Board of Trustees resolution conferring this award acknowledges Mr. Bogaard as a staunch supporter of the institution's mission and values. The resolution goes to note Mr. Bogaard's outstanding service to the Pasadena community as an advocate for helping at-risk youths through education; and as the mayor of Pasadena his dedication to all levels of education through his Pasadena City of Learning Task Force. Mr. Bogaard has been active in the reform of public schools, the strengthening of cultural institutions, and the enhancement of Pasadena's neighborhoods.

The 2009 Campus Special Recognition Award goes to Ms. Virginia Dedeaux, supervisor of Pasadena City College's Student Business Services. The Board of Trustees resolution conferring this award on Ms. Dedeaux recognizes her 38 years of service to Pasadena City College. Ms. Dedeaux is a distinguished graduate of Pasadena City College and has been the guardian of all of the students' auxiliary accounts in the Student Bank. Ms. Dedeaux managed 110 student scholarship accounts for 25 years, totaling approximately $4.5 million at its peak, and continues to oversee the 300 Trust & Agency accounts at the college. Ms. Dedeaux has made prudent financial decisions and investments that have benefited the students of Pasadena City College through the annual scholarship programs administered by the college. She has been active in fundraising on campus the past 20 years through the annual TABE Thanksgiving raffle and Scholarship Breakfast. Ms. Dedeaux has spent her entire career at Pasadena City College and continues to tirelessly work on behalf the students.

Please join in congratulating this year's Special Recognition recipients.

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

One of the most colorful parts of the commencement exercise is the academic procession—the opening part of the time-honored and traditional ceremonies. The processional includes all of the participants of the exercises, the graduating class, faculty, Board of Trustees, and participating guests.

The graduating class wears a solid blue gown. All graduates wear a stole. However, graduates wearing a gold stole are permanent members of Alpha Gamma Sigma, a statewide honor society, or are receiving Administrative Honors requiring a grade point average of at least 3.67. The tassel of the cap is worn on the right and changed to the left immediately after receiving recognition.

The college's faculty, which includes its instructors, counselors, and administrative staff, along with the staff, trustees, and guests, wear gowns indicative of their academic rank. This part of the processional is indeed one of the most awe-inspiring of all collegiate ceremonies.

The heritage of the cap and gown, with the colorful spectacle of the academic array, dates back to the twelfth century and the establishment of the first universities in Europe. Although there have been many changes in design and color, each individual gown, with its rank, is symbolic of achievement in a special field.

The Continental System, still used by England and the rest of Europe, allows a distinctive design and color for each college and university. In the United States, however, a uniform Intercollegiate Academic Code has been adopted. The code is a simple one, regulating the colors and materials to be used. Knowledge of a few of these rules permits the viewer to "read" the costume of any graduate of an American educational institution and know at once the wearer's degree, the field or department in which it was earned, and possibly the college from which the degree was received.

Academic gowns are divided into three groups, dependent upon the highest college degree earned by the wearer. The bachelor's gown is made of a black, worsted material with long, pointed sleeves, and the front is closed at the neck. The master's gown is either of black silk or wool and has a long, closed sleeve with an arc of a circle appearing near the bottom and a slit, at elbow length, for the arm. The gown is worn open at the front. The doctorate gown is black silk with full, round, open sleeves. The color of the velvet is usually black, but it may be of the same color of velvet as that which edges the hood. This gown is also worn open at the front.

The traditional black mortarboard-style cap is worn for all degrees, the only difference being the tassel. For bachelors and masters it is usually black, but occasionally it is the color of the velvet on the hood. The doctorate tassel is gold.

The academic costume is set off by the most distinctive of all insignia, the hood. The hood is made of a black material to match the gown and varies in length according to the degree: bachelor, three feet; master, three and one-half feet; and doctorate, four feet. Each hood has a velvet edge of varying widths according to the degree: two inches, three inches, and five inches, respectively. The edging is carried around to the front of the neck to form a neck band. The color of this velvet trim indicates the field or department of learning in which the degree was earned. All hoods have silk lining of the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree.

Following is a partial list of the colors that have been designated to represent the various areas of learning:

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special Thanks to

Dr. Lawrence Jerome McGill and Ms. Rosemary Scott,
Performing and Communication Arts Division, for announcing the names of the participating graduates

Mr. Tracy Cave and Ms. Leticia Velez, Disabled Student Programs and Services, for sign language interpreting services

Mrs. Bonnie Shimasaki, Academic Support, for the floral arrangements

Ms. Siria LoVett, Student Affairs, for coordinating the preparations for Commencement

Our team of student, staff, faculty, and management volunteers for assisting the organizers, participants, and guests

Photographs

For the convenience of the graduates, we are providing a professional photography service and the New Media Center is producing DVD's of the ceremony.

We request that flash photography and lighted video recording not occur during the program.

Flowers

The flowers are provided by the Associated Students of Pasadena City College.

Reception

The reception is hosted by the Associated Students of Pasadena City College.

Production

The following departments assist the Office of Student Affairs in the preparations for Commencement:
