PROPOSAL FROM THE PASADENA AREA COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT TO THE PASADENA CITY COLLEGE FACULTY ASSOCIATION
November 17, 2022

The collective bargaining proposal presented herein by the Pasadena Area Community College District to the Pasadena City College Faculty Association and is expressly made pursuant to the Education Employment Relations Act and the Collective Bargaining Contract between the parties. The following article shall be deemed to remain unchanged in the Collective Bargaining Agreement except as set forth below:

ARTICLE 163

(NEW)

DISTANCE EDUCATION (Online and Hybrid Classes)

163.1 Definition: Distance education includes both the Hybrid and Online classes defined by Title 5 where the instructor and student are separated by distance and interact through the assistance of technology. For all courses offering online components there shall be regular and effective contact as defined by Section 55204 of Title 5.

163.2 Participation by faculty in distance education at Pasadena City College is voluntary. The decision by a faculty member not to be involved with distance education will not be negatively evaluated.

163.3 Certification: All distance education instructors, prior to their first distance education assignment, shall complete training approved by the Distance Education Department or demonstrate mastery or competency in online education. Faculty who instruct online shall maintain certification to teach in online or hybrid format, as required by the academic senate guidelines, accreditation requirements, and any state laws or regulations.

163.4 Full-time Faculty Load Limitation: A full-time faculty member may be assigned to teach up to 80% of their contract load each regular primary term (Fall or Spring) assignment as online learning or a combination of online learning and hybrid.

Any deviation from this load limitation must be approved by the Division Dean and the Vice President of Instruction.

163.5 Virtual Office Hours: All distance education instructors shall conduct virtual office hours. The number of virtual office hours shall be no less than the percentage of the faculty member's contract load that is designated as distance education held in proportion to the professor's distance learning load. Virtual office hours can be conducted from any location. The virtual office hours schedule and the synchronous method of interaction shall be communicated to division offices via established division procedures and to students via the course syllabus.

163.6 Class size for Distance Learning Classes: The class size limit for a distance education class shall be the same as for traditional classes (face-to-face).

163.7 Evaluations ~~and Classroom Visitation~~ in Distance Education Courses: Evaluations shall be conducted under Article 7 - Evaluation Procedures. Prior to the evaluation of a

52 distance education course or online component of a hybrid course the instructor shall be 53 given the opportunity to provide guidance to the administrator/designee and/or peer 54 evaluator regarding course organization and content that is applicable at the time of 55 review. All evaluators may access the online course at the agreed upon days and 56 times. The District shall notify the Instructional Faculty unit member of Record in 57 advance of any plan to enter a Distance Education course for evaluation reasons.
58 Such visitors to a faculty member’s online course shall be added to the LMS in the 59 “Observer” role.
60

61 163.7.1 Peer Evaluators: The peer evaluators, who shall be certified in distance
62 education, shall be granted access to the designated course by the Distance
63 Education Department with prior notice to the instructor for a specific period of 64 time. The instructor shall guide the peer evaluators through the course by 65 providing directions, explaining the features of the course, and exploring the 66 course with the evaluators. The peer evaluator shall not have direct online
67 contact with students enrolled in the class. If possible, peer evaluators will 68 have taught in the mode/format being evaluated (online or hybrid) within 69 the current year.
70

71 163.7.2 Duration: The evaluation of the course may occur over multiple visits within a 72 seven consecutive day period beginning with the first day of online entry into the 73 course. Follow-up observations may be arranged with the approval of the 74 Division Dean who chairs the evaluation committee. For hybrid courses, the 75 same peer evaluator will observe both the online and face-to-face portions of the 76 course. Access to the online portion will follow the above procedure.
77

78 163.7.3 Evaluation Form: For the evaluated online/hybrid class the evaluator will submit 79 the form approved for use in online/hybrid classes.
